Drop Rock on Dynamite; Are Badly Burned About Face and Hands

One May Lose Finger.

While preparing to clean away some blasted rock on Dr. E. D. Siron's homestead on Mt. Franklin, four and one-half miles from El Paso, two Mexicans were severely burned Wednesday morning.

Jesus Quintana was badly burned about the face and his eyesight may be affected, while Domingo Gonzalez was badly burned about the face and hands and may lose one finger.

Under contract, the men had been clearing the land, which is located on the east side of Mt. Franklin. They believed that all the dynamite had been exploded and inadvertently dropped a large rock on top of some which was on top of the ground. There was an explosion and their faces and hands were filled with fine gravel and the skin burned black. Dr. Siron, who was preparing to come to town, rushed the men to his office in an automobile. There he dressed their wounds and upon their own request, sent them to their homes on South Stanton street.

PRINTER TURNS LAWYER;
GETS COVETED RELEASED.

C. L. Outlaw, a printer, alias John Doe, American, who was arrested by the police Monday night on a charge of being drunk and assault, was defended and acquitted by F. J. Schilling, a brother printer, Tuesday afternoon in the corporation court. Schilling first asked Judge Adrian Pool if it were necessary for a man to have a license to practice in the corporation court, and being informed that it was not, took over the defense of Outlaw.

Schilling raised an objection to a witness testifying that his client was drunk, on the ground that as the witness was not acquainted with Outlaw when sober he was not qualified to testify that he was drunk.

"If you do not know the defendant when he is sober," Schilling addressed the witness, then you can't testify that he is drunk. You can not draw the distinction if you have not known a person under both conditions."

"I know a man when he is drunk," replied the witness.

Judge Pool dismissed the case against Outlaw with the warning that the next time he appeared in the court he would be fined the limit. He repeated the admonition several times, asking after each if Outlaw understood it.

A. L. Cole, a companion of Outlaw, who was with him during the trial, was arrested by the police on a charge of using abusive language shortly after he and Outlaw left the police station.

HOME BUILDING IS ACTIVE IN EL PASO

Seth Orndorff Buys Property in Yaleta and Will Build Store Building and Residences On It.

Homes have become a fad in El Paso and everywhere new ones are going up. The additions are finding favor in the eyes of new home builders and the bungalow of five or six rooms is the favorite home.

E. W. Earl has bought lots 27 to 30, both inclusive, in block 72, grandview addition, from the Newman Investment company. Plans for a bungalow home costing $3500 to be erected thereon have been prepared by the Perry-Kirkpatrick Realty company and construction work commenced.

Seth Orndorff has faith in Yaleta and believes the town is bound to grow as an important suburb of El Paso. To prove his faith in the old town he has purchased 5.43 acres there on the main street, adjoining the school house and directly across the street from the main drug store of the town. He paid $3200 cash for the property.

Will Build Store and Residences.
On the corner he will erect a two story brick store building with a hall on the second floor where lodge and other meetings can be held. On the two adjoining lots he will build modern residences, while the balance of the property, which is being subdivided into 50 lots, will be sold on the market.

He has also purchased 13 sections of mesa land back of the Orndorff ranch in blocks 78 and 79, township 3. The property was purchased from Jay F. Knox and will be used for grazing purposes. Mr. Orndorff intending to put cattle on it.

Is Building $5000 Home.
R. C. Semple has started work on a residence to be built in Government Hill to cost $5000. It will be built on the corner of Marr and Cambridge streets and will be a seven room bungalow with large sleeping porch. The ground is now being graded and the materials for the house being hauled to the site.

WAR PICTURE AT CRYSTAL.
The Vitagraph's great picture of an incident of the Sepoy rebellion, "The Indian Mutiny," will be shown at the Crystal tonight. An unusually large number of soldiers are used in the battle scenes. Three big elephants also appear. This picture, according to the management, is one of the best of the season. "Fire in a Match Factory" and "The Prisoner's Story" will also be shown.—Advertisement.

Yes, madam, "Seal Brand" is a blended coffee

It is blended by experts—men who know coffee and the coffee plantations from "A" to "Z".

Some districts produce coffee having a high flavor; others coffee of great strength, some coffee strong body; other coffee containing a high percentage of either caffeine or acid.

A skilled blender puts these various growths together in the exact proportions necessary to produce a delicious, fine flavored, satisfying coffee such as Chase & Sanborn's "Seal Brand."

The growths vary by seasons—so the blender in order to produce the same result at all times must vary his proportions to produce the perfect blend.

Any one can mix coffee—it takes experience and a knowledge of chemistry and coffee planting and soil conditions to produce "Seal Brand"—the perfect blend.

Advice to the Lovelorn

(By Beatrice Fairfax.)

HER LOVE HAS COOLED.

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I have been keeping company with a girl for some months and lately she has become very indifferent and treats me with coolness every time I meet her.

When I asked her if I have said or done anything to her—that I would willingly apologize—but she says I haven't, but still treats me the same.

I am sorry for you, but the girl no longer loves you.

Stay away from her. If she doesn't miss you and send for you, then I can offer you no hope.

She says you have not offended her; don't make any more apologies. They are an unnecessary humiliation.

IT DOESN'T LOOK LIKE IT.

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I have been keeping company with a young man about a year and lately I have been in the hospital about four weeks, and while in there he went with another girl, and when this girl found out that he was keeping company with me she gave him up. Do you think he loves me?

When a man loves a girl he doesn't take advantage of her misfortune to flirt with other girls. The other girl was considerate to give him up, but I hope you are wise enough to refuse to welcome him back with outstretched arms. He has sinned. Make him do penance for it.

OBTAIN THE INTRODUCTION FIRST.

Cottolene

for Digestible Muffins

Muffins can never be their best if made from lard and soaked with grease.

Cottolene muffins are light, dry and crisp, because Cottolene heats to a higher temperature than butter or lard, without burning, and in cooking forms a crust which shuts out the fat.

TRY THIS RECIPE FOR MUFFINS

1 1/2 tablespoons melted Cottolene
1 1/2 cups milk
3 cups sifted flour
1 egg
3 teaspoons baking powder
Sift baking powder and flour together, add the Cottolene, sugar, egg and milk (use more or less milk according to flour).

Cottolene cooked food is always digestible.

Cottolene is much more economical than butter or lard.
